CREATE CAPITAL FUND - Privacy and Disclosure Statements

Create Campaign, Inc. seeks information to process your request for funding. We collect information through the use of forms and information submitted by you. Seeking information from references provided by you is also part of our application process. The personal information we collect about you will help in the decision making factors for funding. Providing inaccurate or incomplete information may impact our ability to make an appropriate funding decision.

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions such as the Lender obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means for Borrower: When Borrower opens an Account, Lender will obtain Borrower's name, address, date of birth (for Authorized Representatives) and other information that will allow Lender to identify Borrower. Lender will verify this information with Borrower, Authorized Representatives or others.

Generally, we only use or disclose personal information about you for the purposes for which it was collected (as set out above). We may disclose personal information about you to related entities to facilitate our internal business processes and/or third-party service providers who also assist with our business operations. Information may be disclosed for purposes of compliance with anti-money laundering laws, for purposes of reporting suspect information in cases of confirmed credit fraud and for purposes of marketing the Create Capital Fund and/or the Create Campaign, Inc.'s products and services. Please be aware that our service partners may or may not be required to comply with our privacy policy but must adhere to their own.

We take the security of your personal information seriously and take reasonable steps to ensure the security of information stored. However, the submission of information is ultimately undertaken at your own risk.

Create Campaign, Inc. prides itself on advancing diversity and inclusion in the area of economic development through entrepreneurship.

I certify that the information provided is correct and complete to the best of my knowledge. I understand that falsifying or omitting information may result in my application being rejected.
